

It's time to celebrate those individuals who have significantly contributed to
Ohio's water resources!

Help us by nominating someone today at:

<http://wmao.org/nominate-award/>

WMAO Award Nominations Due: Sept. 30, 2018

Awards:

Ohio Water Hall of Fame

- Nominees shall be persons who have given years of distinguished service in behalf of bettering the management, use or enjoyment of Ohio's water resources.
- A nominee shall be retired.
- The award need not be given annually.
- No more than one award shall be given in a single year without the expressed permission of the Executive Board.
- The award may be given posthumously.
- A nominee may be an engineer, business executive, industrialist, environmentalist, chemist, farmer, government official, legislator, lawyer, judge, teacher, researcher, educator, association leader, administrator, reporter, editor, etc.

Technician of the Year

- Shall be made to paraprofessional or technical water service employees.
- Nominees may be water plant operators, engineering technicians, water-quality control technicians, etc.
- No more than one award shall be given in a single year.

Distinguished Service Award

- A nominee shall be a person who has made some noteworthy endeavor in behalf of improving water resources or their use in Ohio.
- Nominees shall be currently active in the water-related endeavor.
- No more than one award shall be given in a single year.
- A nominee may be an engineer, business executive, industrialist, environmentalist, chemist, farmer, government official, legislator, lawyer, judge, teacher, researcher, educator, association leader, administrator, reporter, editor, etc.

Wayne S. Nichols Award

- The nominee shall be from a public agency.
- The person shall be selected for having demonstrated high qualities of leadership; innovation, cooperation and accomplishment in any field of water resources related endeavor in Ohio; and for exemplifying personal qualities that mirror the finest in character and public employment, in the spirit of Wayne S. Nichols.
- The award need not be given annually.
- No more than one award shall be given in a single year.

R. Livingston Ireland Award

The nominee shall be from the private sector of business or industry. The person shall have demonstrated leadership and outstanding accomplishment in any field of water resources related endeavor in Ohio pertaining to the private sector, in the spirit of R. Livingston Ireland.

- The award need not be given annually.
- No more than one award shall be given in a single year.

It's quick, easy, and a great way to recognize people who have contributed to Ohio's water resources! Please help us by nominating someone today at:

<http://wmao.org/nominate-award/>